DEDICATION

The Seniors of 1966 wish to dedicate this year's edition of the Cullog to Miss Bette Tambling, our senior class sponsor. Last year as one of the trip sponsors and this year as the Cullog sponsor and senior play director, her services have been very valuable. All we can do now is say "Thanks"; but, in time, we hope to become the adults who are capable of accomplishing the things she thinks we can.

APPRECIATION

We, the Seniors of 1966, wish to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Campbell. All the help she has provided the students, especially the class of 1966, as a teacher, advisor, and friend, has been highly valued and will never be forgotten. We hope that this in some small way will let Miss Campbell and everyone else know how much we care for her.

RECOGNITION

The Class of 1966 wishes to recognize Mrs. Gmen, the school secretary, and Janitor, Cliff Flessner, for all the many wonderful things they have done for us during the last four years. Thank you both very much.

PROPHECY

It's already 1986. Here we are at the luxurious estate of Jerry Hahn, wealthy owner and president of the famous Hahn Trans-World Airlines, for the reunion of the class of 1966.

The first to arrive were two of Mr. Hahn's old buddies, Joe Sterrenberg and Larry Coash. Joe, a Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force, had just returned from duty in Mexico, where he was awarded a medal of honor for improving public relations between Mexico and the United States. Larry came from Boston where he is the influential owner and manager of the NBA Champions, the Boston Celtics.

Linda Earing flew in by way of Hahn jet from San Francisco. She is known as the "fastest stenographer in the west." At last count she was able to take dictation at 340 words per minute. (Would you believe 240 words per minute?)

Taking time off from their busy schedule, Joyce Spall and Denny Read joined us for a few hours before returning to Cannes for the Cannes Art Festival, where their famous paintings are on display.

Phil Haren and Bill Halpin were actively engaged in a conversation concerning the farm situation. Bill is now the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C. and Phil is one of the outstanding hog producers in the nation.

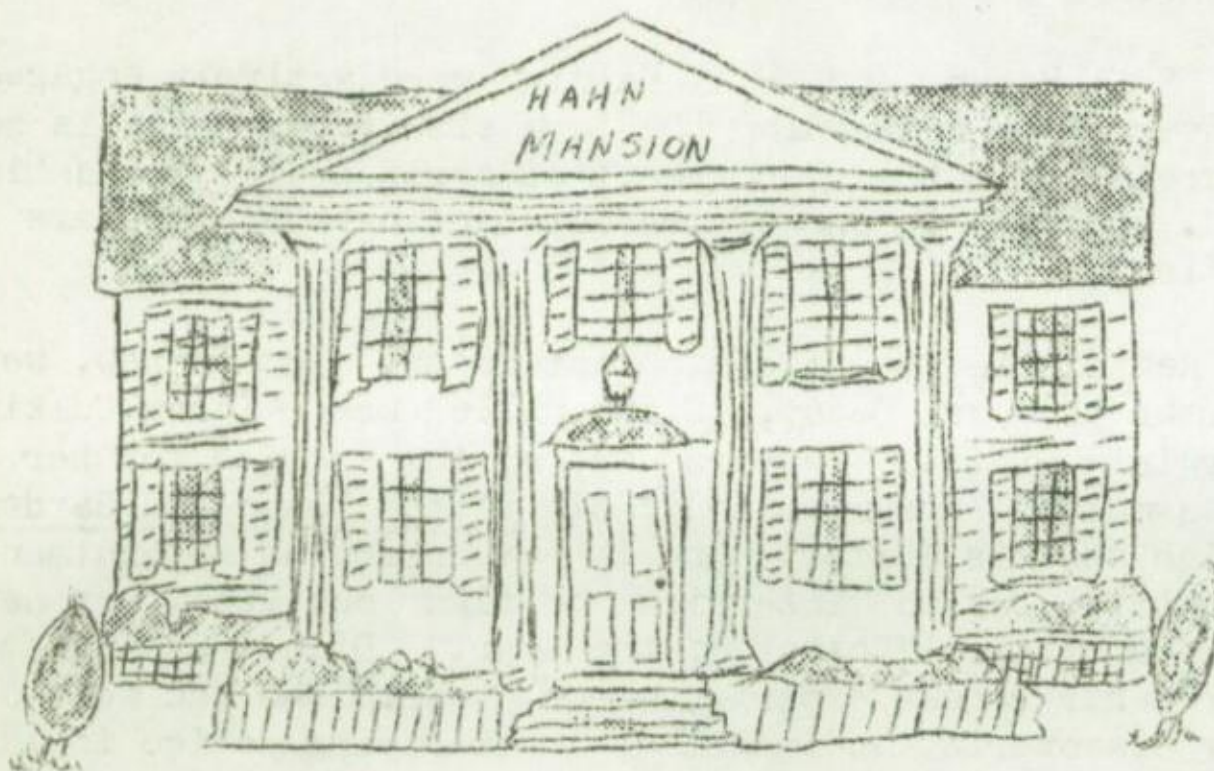

Reminiscing about common interests, old and new, were the former Barbara Deany, Diane Billerbeck, Karen Culkin, and Virginia Dietz. Barbara was giving advice to her former classmates, straight out of Better Homes and Gardens, of which she is editor. She is arranging an appointment with Virginia for an interview to find out about her newly awarded title, "Mother of the Year." Diane was relating to Karen her recent experiences on a trip she had won to Paris for discovering an important labor-saving device in the home. Karen, who is now the wife of a prominent business man, uses her spare time to manage a nation-wide chain of exclusive restaurants.

Jack Shearer and Larry Groskreutz were busily discussing the latest developments in the business world. Larry took off a few days from his hectic life as a stock broker on Wall Street to come to the reunion. Jack keeps in touch with the business world also; he is now the chief accountant of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City.

Back from Mozambique, where she has been working as a nurse in the Peace Corps, is Paulette Morrisette. She is telling Sharon Krumwiede and Karen Landis about some of her experiences with the people there. Sharon is one of the foremost female lawyers in the nation. She had just successfully completed one of the most important cases of her career. Karen is now one of the best known social workers in the country. She is best known for her book on the social problems of the American Male.

Looking around the room full of successful and happy people who would have believed that this was the

"CLASS OF 1966"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Class of 1966

We, the Senior Class of 1966, being of sound mind and good physical condition, desire to befall the following bequeaths upon those rightly deserving. We further state that this testament, in its entirety shall make all previous wills null and void.

Thus, we hereby make the following individual and group bequeaths to those justly stated:

I, Diane Billerbeck, bequeath to Dianne Haley the directions to a "certain spot" in hopes she will put it to good use.

I, Larry Coash, bequeath to Bruce Perring all the fun I had in my senior year in hopes that he will have even more.

I, Karen Culkin, bequeath all the fun and laughs I've had throughout high school to Vickie in hopes she'll have even more.

I, Barbara Deany, bequeath all my angelic qualities to anyone in high school that needs them to stay out of trouble. And to Gayle Corban all the fun I have had as a cheerleader, majorette, and Cullog Editor.

I, Virginia Dietz, bequeath to Doris all the fun I have had during my years in C. C. H. S.

I, Linda Earing, bequeath my giggle and all the fun I had in high school to any girl in the Freshman class.

I, Larry Groskreutz, bequeath my seat at the genius table in bookkeeping to any incoming Bookkeeping student who qualifies as a genius.

I, Jerry Hahn, bequeath my frame of mind towards girls to Louis Sterrenberg hoping he dates as often as possible, seven times a week.

I, Bill Halpin, bequeath my height to Alan Koerner to add on to his so that he might be tall enough to be a guard on the J. V. team.

I, Phil Haren, bequeath my ability to get out of practice to Alan Hack in hopes that he works harder than I did.

I, Sharon Krumwiede, bequeath my ability of having fun instead of working to Linda Haag in hopes that she may have a very successful senior year, by not using it as often as I did.

I, Karen Landis, bequeath to my sister, Kathy, all the opportunities I had upon entering high school and hope that while having a good time, she, unlike me, uses them.

I, Paulette Morrisette, bequeath to Paula Heeler my little red horn to toot at the football games, all the fun I've had and someone to tell her problems to.

I, Denny Read, bequeath my ability to cause disorderly classes to Bob Koerner in hopes that he will use it wisely.

I, Jack Shearer, bequeath to Ron Hoffman my ability to get by with chewing gum in class in hopes that he will not get caught so often.

I, Joyce Spall, bequeath all the fun and good times I have had to Marcia Groskreutz.

I, Joe Sterrenberg, bequeath my ability to get kicked out of games to Alan Hack in hopes that he may get into a few.

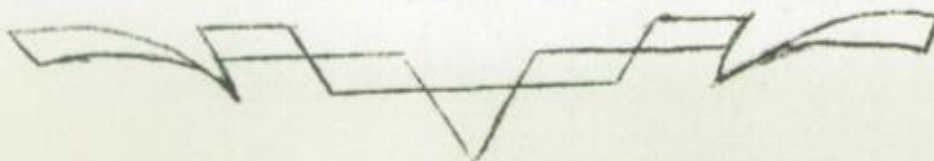

We, the Seniors of 1966, do make the following joint bequests to the specifically designated groups.

We, the Seniors of 1966, bequeath to the class of 1967 all our good manners, sophisticated looks, and the ability to stay in school one more year with the hope that they will use them to gain a reputation for themselves which is as good as ours.

We, the Seniors of 1966, bequeath to the class of 1968 our many excuses in hopes that they will help them out of as many delicate situations as they have us.

We, the Seniors of 1966, bequeath to the class of 1969 our air of sophistication and our ability to conduct ourselves properly in public with the hope that they may someday be the worthy students we are.

We, the Seniors of 1966, bequeath to the class of 1970 the honor of following our steps in being one of the best behaved classes to ever graduate from C.C.H.S. (We're the best!!!)

"COACH SEZ"

Twenty-nine boys reported for fall football practice on August 25. When the final bell rang, twenty-six boys were still banging heads. I felt this was a very good ratio. The squad was composed of eight seniors, ten juniors, five sophomores, and four freshmen.

A heavy burden weighed on the shoulders of this squad for Cullom High School had been non-victorious since the 1961 season. Also, the boys faced a rough first four games on the schedule. None of these kids had ever played in a winning varsity football game in their entire career.

The first portion of the season found spirit on the squad low, then co-captains Phil Haren and Joe Sterrenberg accepted the responsibility of building team morale for the remainder of the season.

Our season began with four consecutive losses. Optimism prevailed though as constant improvement showed up. Our homecoming proved to be one of the saddest days of the season as the boys gave everything they had only to come off a 7-6 loser to Kempton. I know many of them felt this was another fruitless campaign. Then the morning of October 22 dawned gloomy and rainy. This was a very welcome sight to me as I knew our opponent liked to throw the ball a lot. The field was muddy and slippery when we went out to warm up. After 48 minutes of hard fought football, Cullom High had the grimmest, happiest football team in the state. The scoreboard showed "Cullom 14--Gilman 6." Bedlam broke loose on the field as everyone was elated over the outcome. A 100 per cent effort had been given by all and the reward was very sweet.

The next week the boys rambled over O.M.S. by a 35-6 count. Again the entire squad gave an all out effort in gaining victory on their home field.

We were beaten in our final game by a very good Onarga team, but the big bridge had been gapped. The coaching staff was very proud of the season and the boys.

Our frosh-soph squad ended the season with a 1-1 record. They also showed much improvement throughout the season and should be looking forward in the years to come.

Basketball season was on us before we knew it. Nineteen boys reported for basketball drills, nine varsity members and ten junior varsity players.

We were limited in size with our tallest member being 5'11".

The highlight of the basketball season came early as we defeated Onarga Community 55-51. We slowed the game down as we knew Onarga liked to run. Every boy turned in an outstanding game as the squad attempted only 12 shots the last half and made 10 of them.

We hit a lull in the middle of the season, but came on strong at the end to salvage a mediocre season. Our conference mark was 5 wins and 6 losses. Our over-all season mark stood at 9 wins and 13 losses.

Our frosh-soph basketball squad closed out the season with a 7-11 record. I'm sure some of these boys will turn out to be real fine athletes before leaving high school.

I have enjoyed working with the boys throughout the season. Through competitive athletics, I hope their contribution to the community has become richer.

The annual Athletic Banquet was held on Tuesday, March 29, 1966, in the Cullom High School Gymnasium. On the banquet committee for 1966 were Durwood Stewart, Chairman, Paul M. Gray, Marvin Satterfield, Paul Anderson, Harland Hoffman, and Arthur Hack.

After the Reverend Edward J. York gave the invocation, dinner was served by the Lutheran ladies.

Main speaker for the evening was Ron Acks, defensive halfback of the fighting Illini. He gave a very interesting speech on the value of sports in school in later life.

Grade school awards were given to members and managers of the basketball team and cheerleaders by Coach Ray Aubry. Coach Jim Workman presented the high school cheerleaders and players with their letter awards while telling interesting highlights about each. BAND

The High School Marching Band started out the year by performing at half-time for the home football games of the Ramblers.

The Christmas concert, presented on December 16, provided a fine evening of entertainment. The music played by the high school band was "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Wintry Scene," "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," "While Shepherds Watched," "Away in a Manger," "The First Noel," and "The Christmas Song."

Twelve members of the band attended the Livingston County Band Festival in Fairbury. Mr. Al Wright, professor at Purdue University, conducted the band.

At the Spring Concert, April 28, the band played "Trumpets and Tabards March," "Elegy for Moderns," "American Heritage," and "Rhythm of the Winds."

This year brought about a real first for both band and chorus. Awards were given to members of both organizations. The awards were a blue and white Cullom 'C' with the word band or chorus embroidered into the letter. The letters were blue on a white background with white lettering.

STUDENT COUNCIL

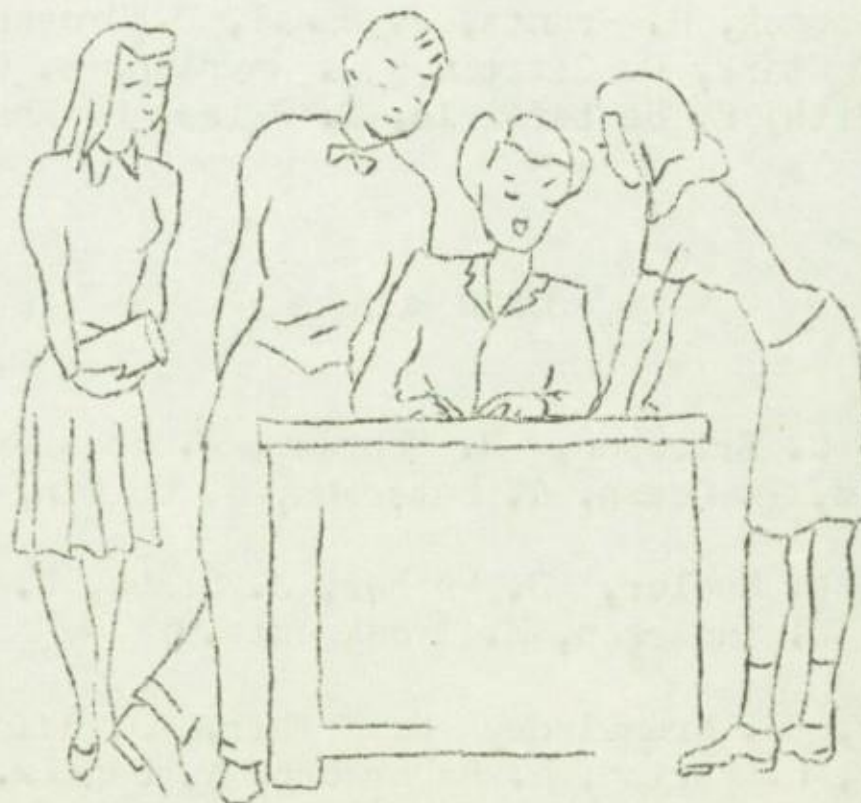

The Student Council of Cullom High School was very active this year. The members represented the four classes and various school organizations. Officers elected were President--Sharon Krumwiede; and Secretary-Treasurer--Rita Haberkorn. Miss Campbell served as advisor for the group.

Election of Homecoming King and Queen and court was directed by the Student Council. Its members also decorated the stage for the Homecoming dance and the cars for the attendants for the parade. They sponsored a very enthusiastic Bon Fire and had a car in the parade.

Other activities for the year included decorating the school evergreen trees at Christmastime, decorating the halls, and supervising the all-school Christmas party.

Later in the year the Student Council organized a volleyball tournament among the four classes. The brackets of the tournament were girls, boys, and mixed.

At the end of the school year they sponsored a farewell party for their sponsor, Miss Campbell, who left the school faculty at the end of the year.

As future college students, the members of F.T.A. were interested in knowing just exactly what college life is like. The F.T.A. sponsored a round table discussion with high school students and recent graduates of Cullom High who are presently in college.

The Cullom Chapter was represented at the District Workshop in the fall. The purpose of the workshop was to discuss various forms of teaching.

The F.T.A. members toured Metcalf Grade School for the Handicapped and the Special Education Department of I.S.U. This proved to be a very worthwhile trip for the Future Teachers.

PROM

"All roads lead to Rome"--at least this was the case on Friday, May 6, 1966, the night of our Prom. This year's theme was "Roman Holiday."

For our Roman Holiday party, the gym was converted into a setting of elegance, grandeur, and leisure--an atmosphere typical of Old Rome. The setting was a formal garden in the open courtyard of a Roman palace--complete with flowing fountain, statues, urns of fern, and white stone benches--and down the center, a spacious promenade was outlined on both sides by an imposing colonnade of Roman pillars.

To help re-create a storied garden of the Ancient Empire, Glenn Karr and his orchestra provided music such as "That's Amore" and "La Macarena."

The ROMANTic atmosphere made everyone completely forget that it was only a night of make believe, and everyone could imagine he was "the noblest Roman of them all."

"FAITH, HOPE, AND FLARITY"

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class play, "Faith, Hope, and Flarity" by Jay Tobias, was presented on Saturday, November 20, 1965.

The play took place in the living room of Quadlander Crabbe's home. The fun began when the twins, Faith and Hope, made themselves ugly to keep from marrying young Terence Flarity; Terence masqueraded so the twins wouldn't marry him; and Sally Parsons, the maid, dressed like Mrs. Orkney, the housekeeper, so she could be the twins chaperone. Things clear up very rapidly when Patrick Flarity, Mrs. Orkney, and Crabbe all arrive on the scene within a few minutes of each other, and everyone is forced to reveal their true identity.
